

Wales Lacrosse Code of Conduct

Wales Lacrosse has a clear Code of Conduct across the sport, which is underpinned by our core values of fairness, respect, honesty, and endeavour.

Wales Lacrosse aims to promote respect and enjoyment among players, spectators, officials, coaches, and administrators in accordance with the spirit of the game.

The enjoyment and safety of everyone involved in lacrosse activities is of paramount importance. Every person will be encouraged and asked to ensure that their behaviour and actions meet the values and standards expected of them at all times.

Wales Lacrosse expects from its players:

- fairness and endeavour to play by the rules
- respect for officials and acceptance of their decisions
- honesty and good behaviour in competition
- generosity of spirit in winning and losing.

Wales Lacrosse expects from spectators:

- appreciation for the work of officials, coaches, and volunteers
- positive appreciation towards good play on both sides
- absolutely no bad language, shouting or ridicule from the sidelines
- encouragement for all players to play well and not to discriminate on the grounds of religious beliefs, race, gender or lack of ability.

Wales Lacrosse will:

- listen to its members and respect their point of view
- endeavour to provide a service to members that reflects their needs
- run its administration fairly, honestly and in the best interests of its members
- encourage sportsmanship and friendship through lacrosse
- set the standard for fair play, good sporting behaviour and honest competition
